Discovering Your Gifts – (Romans 12:3-8; 1 Corinthians 1:4-8; 1 Corinthians 12:1-11)

God has uniquely equipped every believer with spiritual gifts. These gifts are NOT given for personal recognition or self promotion, but for the purpose of serving others and strengthening the Body of Christ. (The Church) When we understand and walk in our God given gifts, we become effective stewards of His grace and active participants in His work.

Key Ideas

- Spiritual gifts are given for the common good of all.
- Every believer has been given at least one spiritual gift, but many have more than one.
- Spiritual gifts may differ, but they all come from the same Holy Spirit.
- Spiritual gifts are meant to serve, strengthen, and build up others not to exalt ourselves.

Prayer Focus

Spend time in prayer asking God to :

- Reveal the spiritual gifts He has placed within you.
- Give you wisdom and discernment to recognize those gifts.
- Show you how, where, and when He wants you to use them for His glory.
